

and at a regular meeting of said City Council duly and regularly held at the Council Chambers thereof at the City Hall at Lodi, San Joaquin County, California, said Council duly and regularly passed and adopted a certain resolution submitting to the electors of said City of Lodi the question of whether or not said new uninhabited territory should be annexed to and incorporated in and made a part of said City of Lodi, in and by which resolution it is resolved (1) that a special election is to be called and ordered to be held in said City of Lodi on Thursday September 12th, 1935, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of said City of Lodi a proposition as hereinafter stated to annex to and make a part of said city the uninhabited territory hereinafter described and to change the boundaries of said city accordingly, (2) that the objects and purposes for which said election is and was called and was to be held and was held is and was to submit to the qualified electors of said city, and there was thereby submitted to said qualified electors at said election, a proposition as follows:

RES 796

"PROPOSITION

"Shall the uninhabited territory hereinafter described, be annexed to, incorporated in and made a part of the City of Lodi, a Municipal Corporation, and shall the boundaries of said City of Lodi be changed and altered accordingly and so as to include said uninhabited territory, which uninhabited territory is situated in the County of San Joaquin, State of California, and bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

A part of "HUTCHINS HOMESTEAD ADDITION", as per map thereof filed September 13, 1922, and recorded in Vol. 10 of Maps and Plats at page 60 in the office of the County Recorder of the County of San Joaquin, State of California, which part of said addition is bounded on the South by the North line of "Sargent Road", on the West by the West line of Orange Avenue as said Avenue is delineated on Map recorded in Vol. 11 of Maps and Plats at page 13 in the office of the County Recorder of San Joaquin County, California, on the North by the South line of Oak Street, and on the East by the Westerly boundary of said City."

and (3) said last-mentioned resolution further provided that the City Clerk of said City was thereby ordered, for and on behalf of said city and for and on behalf of said City Council, to give and cause to be given notice of said election by publication of such notice in "THE LODI NEWS-SENTINEL", a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the City of Lodi for at least once a week for a period of two weeks previous to said election, and that such notice should state that it is proposed to Incorporate the territory so sought to be annexed as a part of said city and that said notice should invite the electors of said city to vote upon said proposition by marking their ballots "For annexation" or "Against annexation", and that in said notice the said territory so sought to be annexed to said City should be generally described in such manner as to apprise the voters of the particular land so sought to be annexed and (4) said last-mentioned resolution further provided that if the proposition so submitted should receive the requisite number of votes, to-wit, a majority of all the votes cast in favor of said annexation, the said new and uninhabited territory should be annexed to and made a part of said city, and (5) said resolution further established and the notice hereinafter mentioned designated, the voting precincts and places at which the polls would be open in said city, and appointed the officers of such election, to-wit, two Judges and one inspector, each of whom was a qualified elector of said city, and established and provided for the form of ballot to be used in said election and provided for the method of holding and conducting said election, all pursuant to said act and acts amendatory thereto, and all pursuant to the laws of the State of California in such cases made and provided.